PUBLIC SESSION

Item 1 – Welcome

Chair Buell opened the public session of the meeting by introducing the Board members and welcoming the public at 6:02 p.m. Chair Buell acknowledged and thanked past Trust Board Chair Lynne Benioff and former Board member George Marcus for their service. Chair Buell introduced Community Outreach & Engagement Specialist Mike Sun to present a land acknowledgement recognizing the Raymatush Ohlone tribe.

Item 2 – CEO Report

Ms. Fraser kicked off the delivery of the CEO report. Mr. Rusnack spoke about the Trust's Performance goals and provided an update on the Trust's financial position and operations. Mr. Rusnack acknowledged the great work Trust staff crews performed during the string of unprecedented storms to address the storm damage to the Presidio. Associate Director of Natural Resources Lew Stringer presented on the Trust's Planet goals including recent wetlands and habitat restorations. Mr. Boland discussed the Trust's efforts to reduce the impact of Trust operations on the environment. Mr. Boland also presented on recent work in the Arguello corridor to keep our streets a comfortable place to bike, walk and run.

Director of Visitor Engagement Allison Stone then addressed our People goal by stating the plan to expand the hours the historical elements of the Presidio Officer's Club will be open to the public. Ms. Stone also reported on the 1.4 million visitors that have come to visit the Tunnel Tops, celebrated the success of the Presidio Pop Up food program, and highlighted collaboration with community organizations that support underserved Bay Area communities.

Mr. Sun expanded on additional community efforts engaged in by Trust staff including a recent Native American Health Center event at the Tunnel Tops. Ms. Fraser also acknowledged the work and partnership of Chris Lehnertz of the Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy and David Smith, the new General Superintendent of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area.

Item 3 – Welcome to Golden Gate National Recreation Area General Superintendent David Smith

David Smith was introduced and spoke briefly.

Item 4 – Presidio Trust historic preservation and landscape stewardship work to date

Mr. Boland delivered a presentation on the Trust's work in stewarding the history and lands of the Presidio to date, concluding with an explanation of the remaining challenges. These include the need to earn additional revenue to meet the goals of expanding natural areas and keeping the park in good working order in the Presidio Trust Management Plan and the Trust's three strategic goals. He explained that the easiest projects have been completed, with only the most difficult and expensive projects remaining. He concluded by stating his conviction that the Trust will be able to rise to the challenge and create a Forever Park that will be a source of respite and joy for generations to come.

Item 5 – Public Comment on any matters under the jurisdiction of the Presidio Trust 15 registered attendees and 3 additional attendees delivered public comments.

Adjournment of Public Session

Chair Buell adjourned the public session of the meeting at 7:50 p.m.
