White House Appoints Six New Members to the Presidio Trust Board of Directors

San Francisco, CA (May 14, 2026) – Today, the White House appointed six new members to the Presidio Trust Board of Directors. They are:

- Lynne Benioff, co-chair of TIME
- Trevor Traina, Technology Entrepreneur, CEO and diplomat
- John Bickford, Managing Partner at Local Capital Group
- Laura Arrillaga-Andreessen, Stanford Graduate School of Business Educator, Founder Laura Arrillaga-Andreessen Foundation, Silicon Valley Social Venture Fund (SV2) and Stanford Center on Philanthropy and Civil Society (PACS)
- James Burnham, General Counsel at xAI and X
- Kyle Corcoran (who will hold the veteran’s seat), Chief Financial Officer at Redpanda, Marine

“I’m honored to once again serve one of the greatest national park sites in America and so appreciative for the opportunity,” said Lynne Benioff, who previously served on the Trust board from 2015 to 2025, including as chair from June 2021 to March 2023. Ms. Benioff was also the co-chair of the Presidio Tunnel Tops campaign, which raised $98 million in donations to create a new public space in the park. “The Presidio Trust is an incredibly well-run organization that brings in support from the private sector to support its public mission. I look forward to working with the new board to support the Presidio’s next chapter.”

“I’m delighted to have been asked to serve on the board of this unique and special place,” says Trevor Traina. “As a 4th-generation San Franciscan with a deep connection to the park, I look forward to carrying on the Presidio’s important mission begun by so many passionate champions.”

The Presidio Trust is a unique federal government corporation which earns its own revenue to maintain and operate the national park site, without ongoing federal appropriations, through its hospitality and real estate businesses. The park hosts 9.5 million visits per year.

About the Presidio Trust and Board of Directors

The Presidio is one of America’s most visited national park sites, located within the Golden Gate National Recreation Area. Spanning 1,500 acres next to San Francisco’s Golden Gate Bridge, the Presidio is among the most biologically diverse parks in America. Historically home to native peoples and a military post under three flags, its facilities have been reinvented as museums, restaurants, hotels, homes, and offices. The Presidio Trust is the federal agency that stewards the Presidio, in partnership with the National Park Service and with support from the Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy. The Trust sustains the Presidio by leasing homes and workplaces and offering visitor amenities.

The Presidio Trust is governed by a seven-member board of directors. Six members are appointed by the President of the United States. The seventh is the U.S. Secretary of the Interior or his or her designee. For more information visit www.presidio.gov.
